- A Special Exception is a use that is permitted “by right” but requires additional review and precautions because the use may have some potential of conflicts with adjacent uses or areas that may effect the health, welfare, and safety of the community.
- Uses that require a Special Exception Review can be identified with a “SE” listed in the Upper Macungie Township Zoning Ordinance in Section 27-306: Table of Permitted Uses by District.
- Applicants requesting the Special Exception Use must prove that each of the special criteria pertaining to that use will be met or why the criteria does not apply to the proposes use. Specific criteria can be found in §Sections 27-402 and 27-403 respectively. Standard criteria for all proposed uses can be found in §Section 27-118 Subsection 3D of the Upper Macungie Township Zoning Ordinance.
- All Special Exception Applications shall be heard and decided on by the Zoning Hearing Board in accordance with such standards and criteria. In granting a Special Exception, the Zoning Hearing Board may attach reasonable conditions and safeguards, in addition to those expressed in the ordinance, as it may deem necessary to implement the purpose of the zoning ordinance.
- The Zoning Hearing Board may request an advisory review by the Upper Macungie Township Planning Commission or the Township Engineer.
- The Zoning Hearing Board shall schedule the first hearing within 60 days of receiving a complete application, unless granted a written extension by the applicant.
- Interested parties can present evidence against or expert testimony against the proposed use. The evidence must raise a high level of certainty that the proposed used is going to be detrimental to the health, safety, and welfare of the community, to deny the proposed use.
- If the Special Exception is approved, and a written decision is received, the applicant may start submitting permit applications required by Upper Macungie Township.
- This application is to assist applicants in applying for a Special Exception. The process is explained more completely in Section 27-119 of the Upper Macungie Township Zoning Ordinance. Any information provided in this application is intended as a guide only. The applicant is advised to consult the Zoning Ordinance as well as obtain the services from an attorney, engineer, or other professional in completing this application and presenting the evidence before the Zoning Hearing Board. The Applicant is not required to be represented by third parties. The burden of proof rests upon the applicant to present their case before the Zoning Hearing Board.
